| The Jungian Psychotherapists Association (JPA) is a dynamic learning community of professional practitioners with background and interest in advanced education in Jungian Analytical Psychology. The JPA seeks to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Facilitate and encourage the discussion of a variety of perspectives and experience in Jungian Analytical Psychology. • Develop and deepen a sense of professional community in which members are supported by others with similar experience and training. JPA sponsors learning and collegial consulting opportunities throughout the year, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Diverse forums for the study of advanced Jungian Analytical Psychology within our professional practitioner community. • Clinically oriented educational experiences with local, national, and international Jungian Analysts, as well as clinicians from related analytical orientations. | Annual Clinical Workshops and Consultation Groups Distinguished presenters from our professional community facilitate learning and discussion of clinical topics Annual JPA Seminar for Professionals Full-day workshop open to the public. Lunch provided. Next day consultation group with the presenter open to members only. Past presenters: John Beebe, Michael Conforti, Sylvia Perera, Polly Young-Einsendrath, Donald Kalsched, Ann Ulanov, Samuel Kimbles, Terrill Gibson 6-Hour Ethics Training Provided annually for members only. Presenters have brought a rich variety of clinical perspectives within which to address ethical issues. Ongoing Study Groups Members are welcome to initiate topics for study groups. | As a learning community, our members have an interest and foundational background in Jungian Analytical Psychology. We welcome prospective members who share this background and interest. In order to foster quality training that includes informed discussion among our members, we ask that applicants review our mission and guidelines, and consider whether JPA aligns with their professional background and interests. Guidelines <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • All JPA Members are licensed practitioners in their home state or province or are in the process of becoming licensed (e.g., LMHC-A) • In addition to a background in Jungian Analytical Psychology, we value and encourage continued personal and individual development through the experience of personal psychotherapy. Members are listed on our public website. Members receive notice of JPA educational offerings and special events and receive discounts for all JPA-sponsored events. All members are eligible and encouraged to serve on JPA committees and can be nominated to serve on the JPA Council. Please join us! |
